Any dispute between the parties relating to the Agreement or the performance of the parties hereunder shall be subject to venue of the 52nd District - 4th Division Court in Troy, Michigan, Circuit Court of Oakland County, Michigan, or the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, as a convenient venue for both parties.

Moreover, PJRFSI does not assume or accept liability for any unforeseen postponement or oversight that may result from electronic data exchange, trusting entirely in the validity of all information provided electronically by the Organization. Accordingly, the Organization agrees to exclude PJRFSI and all relevant third parties from all legal responsibility that may arise from any inconsistencies in electronic documents exchanged between the two, and shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless PJRFSI, its directors, officers, employees, assignees, agents, and shareholders of and from any and all claims, demands, suits, obligations, liabilities, damages, losses and judgments, including reasonable attorney's fees, costs and expenses arising from any inaccuracies between electronic documentation and the original thereof.

Should the Organization violate this restriction, it agrees to pay PJRFSI an amount of $100,000 U.S. Dollars in liquidated damages, and the Organization agrees that such an amount is a fair and equitable sum and is reasonable and appropriate in such a situation.
- 10.10 Disclaimer: In the event that the Organization's audit to the applicable standard is completed successfully and a Certificate of Approval is issued, the Certificate shall in no way be construed by any party as evidence of compliance with any other standard, rule, regulation, statute, or ordinance or reflect or suggest absolute or even comprehensive conformity of the Organization's system and/or facility to any other standard, rule, regulation, statute or ordinance. The Certificate of Approval only indicates that the Organization appears to be compliant with a particular standard at a particular point in time. PJRFSI is not responsible for notifying any regulatory agency of any apparent or potential breach of any rule, regulation, statute, or ordinance PJRFSI may detect during the course of any audit. PJRFSI only agrees to audit the Organization's Management System for conformance to the applicable standard requested at the particular point in time. Further, PJRFSI shall not be liable for any nonconformity that may occur due to changes in the applicable standards and/or subsequent events. PJRFSI makes no claim or assertion that the Organization's Management System will continue to comply with the requirements of the audited applicable standard. It is incumbent upon the Organization to continue to follow the applicable standard(s). PJRFSI has no role in its continued implementation. PJRFSI is not certifying or attesting to the safety or fitness of any product or service or whether the Organization's employees are operating in compliance with all food safety regulations at all times. Rather, PJRFSI is only reviewing a particular management system at a particular time to assess whether it appears to be compliant with a particular standard. Accordingly, in the event of any action taken or threatened by the Organization hereunder that, if taken, would constitute a breach of its obligations under any of these Sections, PJRFSI and its successors and assigns are entitled to injunctive or other equitable relief and/or a decree for specific performance, without the posting of any bond or other security, in addition to any other remedies it may have for damages or otherwise. The Organization may not take any action or position inconsistent with this acknowledgement, and PJRFSI will be entitled to recover its attorney fees and costs in connection with the enforcement of this Section 10.14.

- 10.15 Costs of Enforcement: The Organization shall pay or reimburse PJRFSI for any and all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees, expert witness fees and court costs) incurred in enforcing its rights, including the rights to receive any payment for services provided to the Organization, under the Agreement. This provision shall survive the expiration or termination of the Agreement for any reason and/or the completion of the services for the Organization.
- 10.16 Assignment: The Organization may not assign this Agreement, in whole or in part, without PJRFSI's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld by PJRFSI in its sole and absolute discretion, and any attempted assignment in violation of this Section will be void and of no legal effect.
